

The Leo Marchutz School of Painting & Drawing presents

Painting in Provence: A Seminar in Vision

An Interdisciplinary Summer Program for Adults in Aix-en-Provence, France

Summer 2024: June 15th – July 20th

Join the Leo Marchutz School of Painting & Drawing for a five-week interdisciplinary art program in Aix-en-Provence, France from June 15th through July 20th, 2024. Participants will immerse themselves in the daily practice of painting and drawing in both the studio and the landscape of the south of France, and will participate in weekly discussion-based seminars, creative writing classes, and introductory French sessions. Additional complementary activities include day trips to surrounding areas (coastal towns along the Mediterranean Sea and the nearby sites of Cézanne and Van Gogh), and additional cultural and academic opportunities. This interdisciplinary program is designed to connect all activities into one collaborative process to help students see more into the world and into themselves.

No prior experience in art or French is required; all courses are taught in English. All intra-program travel, insurance, certain meals, books, and art supplies are included in the program price. The program price does not include any airfare nor lodging in Aix-en-Provence, however lodging can be arranged for an additional fee. Scholarships are available.

Dates: June 15 – July 20, 2024

Price: $6,750

Enrollment Deadline: May 1, 2024

Maximum Enrollment: 20 participants (first-come, first-served)

Leo Marchutz School of Painting & Drawing

"I developed a true sense of admiration and wonder for the world around me that I had never before truly seen, and for that I am incredibly grateful." - Summer 2022 Student

Mission

The Leo Marchutz School of Painting & Drawing fosters a diverse, engaged, and art-focused community through the sustained investigation of the mysterious nature and aim of art. Preserving, nurturing, and expanding the pedagogy and artistic legacy of the school is made concrete through ongoing dialogue, educational apprenticeship, and artistic achievement rooted in Aix-en-Provence, France. We are dedicated to enhancing the ability to see — into the world, into works of art, and into ourselves — encouraging the pursuit of truth, imagination, coherence, and beauty in our art and in our lives.

Vision Statement

To develop a collaborative, art-focused educational and cultural center in Aix-en-Provence and to build an inclusive international community of artists, writers, and students dedicated to pursuing a holistic approach to art-making, art education, and critical dialogue.
